So, you want to study your Masters degree?

Graduating with a Masters degree from an international university gives you a highly-respected qualification that is recognised around the world confirmation of your expertise in your subject that can create new exciting opportunities for you and enhance your career prospects.

Developed with our university partners, the NCUK Masters Preparation offers you a complete solution to gaining your Masters degree in the UK or other countries globally, such as the US and Australia. English for Academic Purposes gives you the high-level academic skills and knowledge you will need at Masters level, the advanced language skills needed to study abroad, and the support and guidance to successfully apply to take your Masters at a leading international university.

Pre-Sessional English could be right for you

NCUK's English for Academic Purposes gives you the confidence and academic knowledge of English that you need for your chosen university degree. You don't need to take an IELTS test as your english level is assessed by NCUK as part of the programme.

Preparing you for academic excellence.

NCUK students progress to a wide range of subjects including common areas of Management, Life Sciences, or Engineering or something completely different, such as Theatre and Drama, Artificial Intelligence, or Robotics. There are thousands of Masters Degree courses to choose from.

“I really improved my English language skills studying on the NCUK programme in China before coming to the UK.”

Developing academic research skills for postgraduate study.

Successful Masters graduates need to have expertise in a wide range of academic research skills. When you take the Research Methods module, you will learn to effectively source and evaluate information from literature and the web, master qualitative and quantitative research methods, research and plan a project, analyse and manipulate data, and understand intellectual property conventions. Note, this module is assessed by a dissertation or project proposal.

Learning the advanced English language skills you need and getting proof of English for Visa Purposes.

Taking NCUK's pre-sessional English for Academic Purposes qualification will ensure you have the high-level reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills needed to succeed on a Masters degree course. Recognized by NCUK Universities, this qualification can be used for visa purposes and so you don't need IELTS or another proof of English exam.

Getting ready to study abroad.

The Orientation to Western Study module prepares you for the teaching and learning methods you will experience on your Masters course: introducing you to the main differences between studying in your own country and studying at a western university. Please note that we will not formally assess you for this module.

Guaranteed access to thousands of Masters degree courses.

When you achieve your NCUK Masters Preparation qualification, you have complete peace of mind that you will be guaranteed a place on a postgraduate degree at a leading university in the UK. NCUK will support you throughout the application process. Our unique one-stop application service means that you don't have to worry about applying to each university separately, or finding the right point of contact. NCUK students have also gone on to study in Ireland and Australia.
